MONEY-MAKING SECRETS OF THE WORLD CUP CHAMPIONS

If you've been killed in the stock market and have no idea how you're going to recoup your losses...or...

If you've been intrigued by the idea of finding another way to make money than your current job...or...

If you've always wanted to find a PROVEN way to make real-world profits while trading...

Then, please, Please, PLEASE: Drop everything and read this little booklet right now!

John Holsinger and Kurt Sakaeda are two of the rarest creatures on the planet: Traders who have real-money personal track records they are proud to share with the world. And unlike most "gurus," these are proven track records, achieved by putting their own cash on the line.

Now, after years of mind-boggling investigation and experimentation, these two World Cup Champion traders have discovered what REALLY WORKS in the markets — amazingly simple, easy-to-use techniques that can put you in a position to profit while most other traders are struggling to stay afloat in the markets.

These money-making secrets are LIGHT-YEARS beyond what you might have learned previously in books, seminars or training courses. They are quite simply WHAT REALLY WORKS in today's markets.

Best of all, John and Kurt reveal the details of their amazing success stories...in the pages of this little booklet.

Please, continue reading...

Dear Trader,

My name is John Holsinger.
I'm a 44-year-old CPA.

You know all the stories about accountants. Well, I am that kind of boring, stay-at-home type of guy.

A decade ago, I knew very little about making money, trading or investing. I had tried different approaches to the markets and had lost a bundle. I lost money on stocks. I lost money in commodities. I seemed to lose in every market.

But in 2002, I won the World Cup Championship of Futures Trading® with a real-money gain of 608%.

That's right: I made SIX TIMES my money in just 12 months of trading!

On January 1st of 2002, I opened up a trading account in the World Cup Championship with $15,276. Twelve months later, I was able to add $92,891.34 in profits to the account...and that's after all commissions and fees.

And best of all, 2002 was NOT a fluke.

I have made real-money profits in six out of the last seven years. Here are my actual, real-money gains from ALL of my trading as reported to the IRS on my 1099 statements (see photo copies through 2001 at right).

1996 Profit:$83,434
1997 Profit:$479,386
1998 Profit:$330,988
1999 Loss:- $100,956
2000 Profit:$161,614
2001 Profit:$77,921
2002 Profit:$248,299

Having invested a grand total of $40,000 of my own hard-earned money OVER SEVEN YEARS, that works out to a total return of 3,433%!

How do I do it?

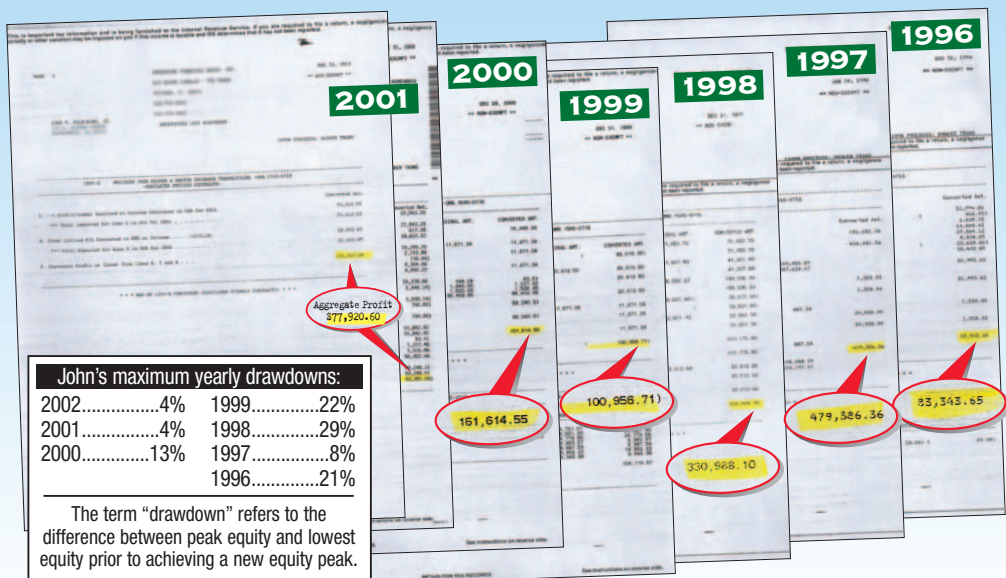

Well, it's not because I'm a brain surgeon, believe me. I'm an ordinary person, just like you, who has learned an exciting new way to make a living.

With my secrets, you don't have to rent an office, hire employees, pay a franchise fee, or even get a business license. You don't sell a product or a service.

There are no clients or customers. It's not multi-level marketing, mail order, penny stocks, or any other get-rich-quick scheme. You don't have to advertise.

Friends and associates are now learning my money-making secrets to supplement their incomes.

JOHN'S ACTUAL 1099 STATEMENTS TO THE IRS

For example:

■ "I have wanted to learn one trading strategy and learn it really well. John's method gives me the opportunity to do that. His techniques are intriguing."

— Gayle D., IL

■ "This course offers something for everyone. If you want the excitement of following the markets all day long you can use John's system of day trading. If you want to trade, but not have to constantly follow the markets, use the 36 trades that Kurt outlines in the manual. It is nice to finally see systems that are based on real money trading instead of hypothetical computer trades. "

— Linda W., CA

■ "John's day-trading method and Kurt's long-term position method are very simple, clear, concise, easy to understand, easy to apply, and repeatable time after time after time. I can use them alone or together. It's a powerful combination."

— Jack T., IL

■ "When I saw how easy it is to make seasonal trades, I was hooked. If a particular market is at this price, you make the trade. If it's not, you don't. What could be easier?"

— Ryan G., CA

Testimonials are believed to be true based on the representations of the persons giving the testimonials, but they have not been independently verified. Nor has anyone attempted to determine the experience of these persons after the testimonials were given. Testimonials are not representative of everyone's experience and the average person who purchases the course should not necessarily expect the same or similar results.

You won't have to risk a single dime to learn my secrets.

I can teach you some of the same techniques and methods I use so that you have the opportunity to start making money right away.

What's more, you can learn how to do it — RISK-FREE!

If you'll take the time to read this little booklet, I'll prove it to you. And you won't have to risk a single dime to learn my secrets.

You will have to do two things, however: (1) Learn to think in a brand-new way; and (2) ignore what "everybody knows" long enough to understand a few simple, but amazingly powerful, ideas.

That's all there is to it. Once you learn the methods and techniques I reveal, you can try them out for yourself, on paper, without taking any risks whatsoever. (I even have a special paper-trading web site that lets you test out my techniques under simulated real-life conditions — more about that in a moment.) But all you'll need to get started are market quotes (from your local newspaper or the Internet), a piece of paper and a calculator.

Once you learn the secrets of WHAT REALLY WORKS in the markets, you can keep testing them over and over again yourself — on paper — until you're 100% certain you know how it works.

Pretty soon, I predict you'll be chomping at the bit to try it out "for real" — and you'll take your first small step toward true financial independence.

A series of small profits quickly add up

Let me be honest with you: No one gets rich quick. No one.

The probability that you can make your first million bucks in one lucky trade are between slim and none.

And the truth is, you don't have to. If you're able to make small profits consistently, month after month and year after year, it doesn't take long before you're able to acquire a tidy sum of money.

Let's look at 2002, for example. I took dozens of profitable trades in my World Cup Championship account, many netting gains in the modest $100–$500 range. But at the end of the competition, I had accumulated $92,891 in net profits!

Many investors I know had a rough time in 2002. Stocks were pounded. People lost fistfuls of money.

But at year's end, when I reviewed all of my accounts, I was up $248,299 for the year.

True, I've had better years. But a quarter of a million dollar gain is nothing to sneeze at.

How did you do in 2002?

However well you did, I believe I can show you how to do better!

I've put my methods to the acid test in competitive, real-world trading. Every year, traders from all over the world compete in the World Cup Championship. Each participant puts a minimum of $15,000 in a trading account and starts trading. Whoever makes the highest percentage return in 12 months ...wins.

In 2002, my secret wealth-building techniques beat every other competitor hands-down. I made a 608% gain, turning $15,276.00 into $108,167.94.

My methods work in the real world and I've PROVED it with real money in head-to-head competition.

I want you to imagine yourself accomplishing the things I have accomplished...

✓ ...taking an initial stake of several thousand dollars and growing it into $1,373,589 in just 86 months...

✓ ...making 3,433% (yes, that's three thousand, four hundred thirty three percent) profit on your money over the last seven years...

✓ ...earning sizable profits during the longest and most severe bear market since the Great Depression (when the S&P 500 fell 24% in 2002, I earned $248,299 in profits)...

✓ ...making $12,000 in a single month...and knowing that your best months produce more than 10 times that profit...

✓ ...supplementing your current income so you're able to pay off bills...travel ...stop worrying so much about retirement...and really live.

I know you've probably heard claims like this before: That ordinary, average people, without extensive training, really can make money successfully.

I sure did before I started... and, like you, I was skeptical. I tried out dozens of different systems and usually lost money.

But I'm here to tell you that profits like these are absolutely, 100% possible — because I've made them!

I've joined forces with another World Cup winner to teach you what REALLY works!

Now, here's the point of this very important booklet: I've recently joined forces with ANOTHER World Cup champion — veteran seasonal trader Kurt Sakaeda — to reveal to ordinary people how they, too, can make extra money in their spare time.

In a sense, Kurt and I are rivals. We have both competed in the World Cup Championship.

In 2002, I was lucky enough to beat Kurt. As I mentioned, I made a 608% gain on my money. I opened an account with $15,276 and ended the year with $108,167.94.

But Kurt won the World Cup in 2000 with a real-money gain of 595%. He opened an account with $16,828 and added an additional $83,352 in profits to the account.

And here is the really exciting part about this: Like me, Kurt is not just lucky. He has also made steady profits in the markets, and he also has the 1099s to prove it...

World Cup Champion Kurt Sakaeda

For the last five plus years, Kurt's performance speaks for itself:

Learn not 1, 2, or 3, but 4 different money- making secrets — all of which led to World Cup victories

Kurt and I have very different techniques for making money and trading.

I day-trade one of the largest, most liquid markets in the world — the S&P 500 — using my secret trading techniques.

Kurt is what is called a “seasonal trader” of almost every type of market there is. He buys things like orange juice and oil and soybeans. My trades are over and done with in a day...Kurt’s can unfold over weeks, even several months.

But we have one thing in common: We BOTH use simple, mechanical systems...and we both have discovered money-making secrets that work in the real world.

And now, for the first time ever, we’re sharing many of our secrets with a select group of open-minded individuals...

Moreover, if you follow our step-by-step program for achieving financial success, you could use many of same techniques we use. Plus, you won’t have to risk a penny to find out how this is done.

With my day-trading system, you can learn how to make money — REAL MONEY.

Nothing is more exhilarating than the feelings you experience in a typical week of using my techniques...like this very typical two-week stretch from my 2002 championship account:

Wednesday, March 20:	Made $2,100
Thursday, March 21:	Lost $1,675
Monday, March 25:	Made $1,600
Tuesday, March 26:	Made $250
Wednesday, March 27:	Lost $450
Tuesday, April 2:	Made $500
Wednesday, April 3:	Made $1,200

TOTAL NET PROFITS: $3,525

(Actually, I made money in my contest account at a slightly better clip than shown here, but you get the idea.)

You see the impact of my technique?

My techniques have allowed me to make hundreds of thousands of dollars in a single year. But think about what even an extra $10,000 or $20,000 a year could mean in your life. With extra money like that, you could possibly:

- ✓ Pay down some or even all of your credit card debts
- ✓ Take your partner on a luxury cruise
- ✓ Pay for top-quality educations for your kids
- ✓ Stop worrying so much about the future
- ✓ Make bigger contributions to your retirement fund
- ✓ Contribute to your favorite charities
- ✓ Buy those you love some of the little luxuries you could never afford in the past
- ✓ And so much more!

That's why Kurt and I have joined forces to create a brand-new, comprehensive course on our easy, simple-to-use money-making strategies.

This course reveals many of the real-world secrets we've used over the years to win the World Cup Championship of Trading® — and make terrific profits trading.

These secrets are simple and easy to use. An intelligent high-school student could make money the way we do.

And as amazing as it may “...think about what even an extra $10,000 or $20,000 a year could mean in your life.”

seem, it only takes a few hours — or in Kurt's case a few minutes — a day to use these secret techniques packed with profit potential.

The truth is, almost anybody can learn to make money this way.

There are no start-up costs other than funding your trading account. No inventory to buy. No business licenses. No employees. No office rent.

With Kurt's approach, you don't even need a computer. Just a daily calendar, market quotes, and pen and paper. All it takes is a few minutes a day. With my approach, you do need a computer and online access.

Kurt will not only tell you WHAT to do...he'll also tell you

WHEN TO DO IT! As part of this course, Kurt will actually give you 36 trades that you can make throughout the year — detailed instructions that you just read to your broker. That’s potentially one about every 10 days! (I’ll tell you more about this invaluable resource later on...)

Once we reveal the secrets that have enabled us to make money trading, you can trade as little or as much as you want. You’ll be a member of a tiny group of people who actually know what works.

Best of all, you can test out these amazing money-making secrets RISK-FREE.

I’ll tell you how you can get a risk-free copy of our new course — MONEY-MAKING SECRETS OF THE WORLD CUP CHAMPIONS — in a moment.

But first, I’d like to share with you some more real-world SECRETS that let me make steady money in the markets...

Secret #2

A mechanical system will outperform human judgment almost every time

You may wonder how an ordinary accountant got to be one of the most successful traders in the history of the World Cup Championship.

Let me tell you my secret: It’s NOT because I’m so smart. In fact, it’s just the opposite. The secret to my success lies in NOT trusting my own judgment.

Like many people in the early 1990s, I tried to make money in the stock market. One day I stumbled upon an article in Fortune Magazine about a guy selling a new S&P trading system.

It sounded great! I promptly purchased it and began to trade.

Almost immediately, the system went into a horrific draw-down — meaning I lost money.

But when I was about to call it quits, I came across an ad for a very interesting magazine. The publication basically evaluated the results of different, purported money-making systems.

Here, at last, was what I was looking for: A simple way to evaluate mechanical approaches to wealth-creation that could be tested and verified.

I made a commitment to myself to buy and test out every system I could get my hands on.

The “trading systems” business was a cottage industry back then and it was actually kind of fun to talk to developers and research their systems. I purchased the ones that looked promising and began to paper trade them one by one.

Finally, after months and months of testing, I was ready to try out some systems with real money.

As anyone can tell you, it is one thing to casually scan the trade-by-trade reports of a system, but another thing entirely to put it into action with real money.

Even with the assistance of packaged programs and software that would spit the orders out, the human element — fear, greed, uncertainty, the constant temptation to second-guess your system — was always still there.

For example, I would pass on certain trades — and they would often turn out to be huge winners. Then I'd jump back into the markets, determined to blindly follow my system, and I'd take three losing trades in a row and quit the system in disgust.

Over the next year, I must have jumped into and out of six or seven systems, all at exactly the wrong time. I wasn't a quick learner!

But instead of walking away completely, I did one thing that 99.9% of other investors in my shoes never did: I continued to track the systems I had purchased! Six months went by and I watched the systems churn out fistfuls of money.

I started an Excel spreadsheet and loaded in the last three years of performance day by day, system by system. Each system had its own column, summarizing the wins, losses, drawdowns and, most important of all, the bottom-line profits or losses.

I stared at this spreadsheet like an archeologist staring at the Rosetta Stone. Surely there was some information to decipher here.

And then I made the single greatest discovery of my money-making career, and that is....

The problem wasn't with the systems. The problem was me!

I discovered that almost all of the systems I had carefully chosen made money. But I was getting in the way.

If I could remove myself as an element in the process, I realized I would be successful.

I went back to the drawing board one final time. I sifted through the information in my spreadsheet and refined my process for selecting systems. I began to sort the tables so that I could see what systems outperformed the others.

Very quickly I was able to finalize my money-making strategies. The final selection process also involved proper capitalization. I had to make sure the portfolio fit the amount of money I could commit. This final step accomplished, I was once again ready to go into the “breach.”

I had created my own customized system using everything I had learned in years of experimentation with real-money trading.

And with this system, I never overrode another signal.

(That’s the beauty of my system. I never have to think about overriding any of the system’s decisions. I do what the system says — and I continue to make money. And I’ve proven it year after year.)

Three days after I opened my new account, I was already at the maximum theoretical drawdown. It was a Friday afternoon and there was no way to get out of my trades.

Let me tell you, I sweated bullets over the weekend. Would this, too, result in another failure? I waited anxiously for the market to open on Monday.

The market opened...going up! I was so excited I literally jumped out of my seat. The end result was that, 2 weeks later, I had recovered from the drawdown and was up 30%.

Imagine: Making 30% on your money in just two weeks. I couldn’t believe it.

From there, I have never looked back. Over the next 86 months, I was able to take $40,000 and produce $1,373,589 million in profits. As I said, that works out to a 3,433% gain.

Of course, people thought I was just lucky. I probably would have, too, if I hadn’t known the secrets of my system.

That’s one reason I decided to participate in the World Cup Championship — to prove that ordinary, average people really can make money trading.

And that is precisely what I did!

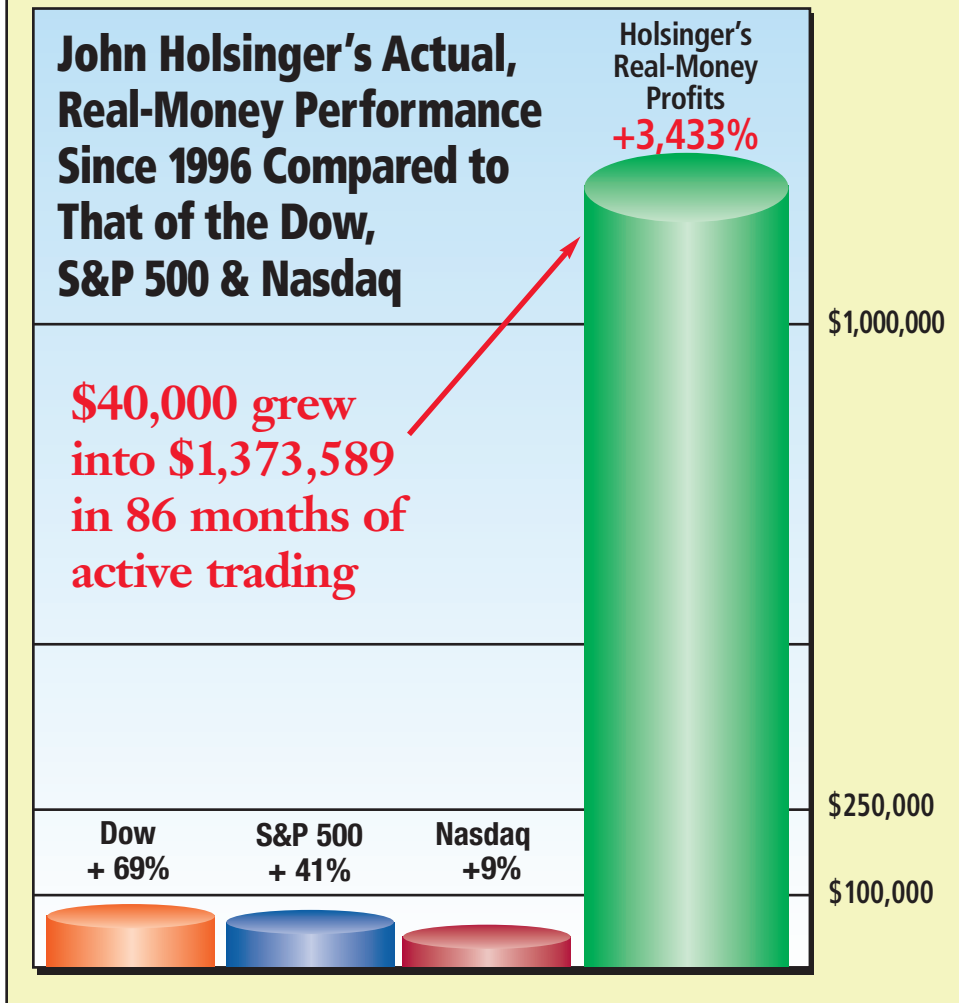

But that leads me to ANOTHER important money-making secret...

Secret #3

Only trust systems that have real-money track records

I made another painful discovery when I was researching trading systems. I discovered that many of the “systems” and techniques advertised in the media HAVEN'T BEEN TESTED IN THE REAL WORLD.

Since 1996, $40,000 invested in Holsinger's trading made 24 times more money than the S&P 500 Index!

You know those promotions you get in the mail about systems that are “98% accurate” and make money on “110 out of 115 trades”?

I do. I bought several of them.

But virtually ALL of them are merely computer simulations... purely “hypothetical” trades...that have merely been back-tested with computer data.

Now, I have nothing against back-testing. In fact, I've back-tested dozens of computer systems myself to see how they work.

But there is a world of difference between hypothetical systems and the real world.

That's why my ultimate test for a trading "guru" or one of these trading systems is a very simple question: HOW MUCH MONEY DID YOU MAKE TRADING LAST YEAR? (I told you how much money I made in 2002 with my techniques: $248,299.)

Or, if you had a losing year in 2002 — does the losing year represent a pattern or just a fluke?

Here's the horrible truth: Many of these so-called gurus haven't made ANY money trading! They have no real money track record at all! None.

One advertisement I saw recently had a trader saying that his "very worst" trading year had a gain of more than 120%.

Sounds impressive. But it wasn't until you read the fine print...15 pages into the promotion...that you discovered that this “guru” wasn't actually making the trades himself.

“Many of these so-called gurus haven't made ANY money trading!”

He was just talking about what his computer-generated recommendations “could” have made — and his purely hypothetical profits.

This really bugs me. I put my own money on the line...win, lose or draw. I've had losing spells like anyone else...but overall, the methods I use have produced terrific results. Otherwise, why should you bother reading this letter?

Never, ever, EVER invest in a trading program that doesn't work in the real world — or have a track record you can trust. That's my first piece of advice to beginning traders. The proof is in the pudding.

In a word: Show me “da” money!

Now Kurt and I have joined forces to teach investors what works in the real world.

We don't pretend to have all the answers...or to be always right...but we have what 99% of other “gurus” out there don’t have — and that’s a proven, “money in the bank” track record.

And here’s what’s really exciting: You can easily learn to use many of the same methods we use!

The techniques that Kurt and I use — and those which we reveal in our brand-new trading course, “Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions” — are purely mechanical trading systems.

That means you don’t have to be some battle-hardened trading genius. Our systems tell you when to buy...what to buy...and how to buy. I’d like to be able to say that I’m a genius...but as I’ve said, most of my success is getting out of my own system’s way.

Once I discovered the simple secrets I reveal in the new course, “Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions,” I no longer had to try to outfox the markets.

I just follow the system...and let the chips fall where they may.

I’ll tell you how you can get a copy of “Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions” risk-free in a moment.

But before I do that, I’d like to tell you a little more about my rival and fellow World Cup champion, Kurt Sakaeda.

Secret #4

Almost every market displays a seasonal pattern

I know a lot about Kurt’s approach because I was a seasonal trader myself. I switched to day-trading only because I like the daily action.

Kurt’s method attempts to take advantage of the regular swings in market prices caused by weather, inventory re-stocking, and other factors.

Using his considerable skills as a professional “computer geek,” Kurt has analyzed the average prices for most markets.

It is a very mechanical approach: On or near the historic low price date for the December wheat contract, for example, which is July 10th every year, Kurt will buy one contract if the price is at or below the average price for that date — which is $2.91. Then, 3½ months later, on or near October 24th, he will automatically sell.

That’s all there is to it!

Kurt has worked out buy and sell dates for each commodity as well as average entry prices and average exit prices.

All you need to do with his system is to enter the trade on or near the specific entry date...if, and only if, you can get a price at or better than the average entry price he has established...and then exit on or near the exit day — win, lose or draw.

Does it work?

You better believe it!

As of this writing, Kurt's World Cup championship account is showing net profits of 80% in just 8 months!

Let's look at some concrete examples:

Corn: Kurt's rule is to enter the trade on or near August 15th by SELLING the July contract of the following year if the price is at least $2.28 per bushel or higher (based on data through 2002). He then buys back the contract on or about December 15th. Here is Kurt's chart of AVERAGE July corn prices. The graph line represents the average of all settlement prices for 43 years on specific days of the year.

And guess what? That is precisely what Kurt did in August 2002!

On August 15th, he took a look at the July 2003 corn contract. It was then trading at around $2.90 per bushel — far above his entry price of $2.28 — so he sold the contract.

On December 16th he exited the trade (by buying back the contract) at $2.45.

Total profit: $2,212.50 per contact.

Orange Juice: Kurt's rule is to enter the trade for orange juice on or near January 19th by SELLING the November contract if, and only if, the price is 100.37 cents per pound or higher, and then exit (buy it back) on or about July 1st.

How does it work out in practice?

Sometimes the actual prices are on the “green light” side of the averages, sometimes they are not. Without the green light, Kurt doesn’t make the trade.

In 2002, the prices were within the set parameters. On February 22, Kurt sold the November OJ contract at 104.00. He held it until July 2nd, and bought it back for 88.45.

Total profit: $2,782.50 per contract.

Kurt’s method is built on hitting home runs, and this one was out of the park. Keep in mind, though, that he has his share of losing trades too...like every trader.

Sugar: Kurt’s rule is to buy March sugar on or near April 9th if it is selling for 8.75 cents per pound or less and then sell it on November 20th. The March sugar chart shown on this page displays average settlement prices going back 41 years.

That is exactly the pattern Kurt followed in 2002.

He bought March sugar for 5.90 cents per pound and then, on November 20th, sold it for 7.36.

Total profit: $1,635.20 per contract.

Kurt Sakaeda's disciplined, steady approach has netted profits of 80% in the first 8 months of trading in 2003!

You've seen those ads in magazines: 98% of trades are winners! Well, those are often hypothetical trades from computer-generated "systems" that do not have real money riding on them.

At right is the real world — 2000 World Cup Champion Kurt Sakaeda's World Cup Championship trading record for the past 6 years.

In the real world you often have more losers than winners. But also in the real world, your winners can add up to substantial gains even with your losses. In Kurt's case, he's made double-digit profits in 5 out of the last 6 years!

But, if you're tired of reading about hypothetical systems that no one backs up with their own money, then try out "Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions." This is real world trading in which the "gurus" have their own money on the line.

In 5 out of the past 6 years, Kurt's real-money World Cup trading account has posted double-digit profits — and in 2000, he made 595%.

Kurt Sakaeda's record over the last 6 years has been absolutely stunning.

In his World Cup championship trading account, with real money, he has made sizable profits in 5 out of the 6 years—despite the greatest downturn in the stock market since the Great Depression.

He made a 71.4% return in 1998, a 28.7% return in 1999, a 595% return in 2000, took a 69.1% loss in 2001, made 63.8% in 2002 and 81.27% in 2003.

Imagine what these types of returns could have done for your more aggressive trading account?

When everyone else you know was losing their shirt in

Year	Percentage Return
1998	71.4%
1999	28.7%
2000	595.0%
2001	-69.1%
2002	63.8%
2003	81.3%

the stock market, imagine what it would have been like to have made these kinds of returns.

Fill out the work sheet below and do the math. Naturally, past performance is no guarantee of future results...but, just for fun, take a look at what Kurt's track record could have done for your wealth in these years if you had been able to trade right alongside him:

Year	Your Starting Amount	Percentage Return	Your End of Year Total
1998		X 0.714 =
1999		X 0.287 =
2000		X 5.95 =
2001		X -0.691 =
2002		X 0.638 =
2003*		X 0.807 =

That's all there is to it. With Kurt's approach, you simply follow the money-making rule book like a recipe.

When the prices in the real world conform to the averages, you make the trade. When, for some reason, the prices in the real world DON'T match the averages, you pass.

It's as simple as that.

The great thing about Kurt's seasonal trading techniques is that you know, far in advance, what your potential trades are: He has dozens of trades for every month of the year.

On the 5th of October, you do this if the prices are such-and-such. On the 7th of June, you do this IF the price is this way.

And we will include 36 of Kurt's trades in the course. Just follow and implement.

It's incredibly easy...and it works. Kurt has the real-money track record to prove it.

Let Kurt and I Help You Make Consistent Profits Trading Year After Year

I've done my best to give you an overview of how Kurt and I trade the markets — the secrets we use to make steady, real-money profits.

With our help and guidance, I believe you could make handsome profits as well — even in your spare time. With Kurt's method, just 10 minutes each morning and 10 minutes each night is all the time it takes!

Obviously, in this little booklet we can't go into all of the details you need to know to be a big success.

And that's why Kurt and I have joined forces to do something we've NEVER done before:

We've gathered together many of our proven secrets for making money into a brand-new course we call "Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions."

These are some of the same secrets that helped us win the World Cup Championship of Futures Trading®, secrets that we have NEVER revealed before to the general public.

This course lets you LEARN FROM OUR MISTAKES — and profit from our discoveries.

Both Kurt and I have spent years...and literally tens of thousands of dollars...testing out various money-making systems.

Over the years, we've discovered which techniques WORK in the real world...and which don't.

We've brought together the BEST techniques — some based on day-trading...others based on seasonal trading. That way, you get the best of both worlds.

You can day-trade and go for the immediate gratification that comes from making profits day by day...or you can use Kurt's longer-term seasonal trades if you prefer a more relaxed way of trading.

This service is the next best thing to us actually coming into your living room and demonstrating the techniques to you, live. And in some ways it is even better than "live."

With the combination of video lessons, demonstration charts and easy review manuals, you will be able to understand and apply our secrets — at your leisure. You can rewind or fast-forward the video presentation. You can mark pages and return later for more insights. This course is like having us with you — EVERY SINGLE DAY — to slowly and carefully reveal to you how we make money.

“This service is the next best thing to us actually coming into your living room and demonstrating the techniques to you, live.”

Best of all, you get ongoing guidance and support. You're not just left there on your own to learn the techniques.

Our Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions course is specially designed for someone who is serious about making money.

“I'm Not Rich. What Will It Take To Get Started?”

Except for the cost of the course, not a dime.

You can start by trading “on paper.” This means you will be taking only hypothetical trades and tracking the results on paper. Not only is this a good learning experience, but also it will teach you how to recognize enormous profits under actual market conditions.

The manual and video course materials in Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions will teach you, step by step, how to initiate trades, take profits, protect positions with stop orders, and much more. In my opinion, you'll have everything you need to get started.

As for your initial start-up capital, once you've proven to yourself on paper just how much potential these systems have, you can start with as little as a few thousand dollars. It all depends on what your present financial circumstances are and how you like to trade.

But, no matter what — and before you invest a dime in trading — you will have proven to yourself that you can do this.

You'll Learn to Crawl Before You Walk

I know what you're thinking: "You've been doing this for years, no wonder you know how to make thousands of dollars in a few hours! What about us newcomers?”

Good point. Both Kurt and I started out where you will be starting. We'll walk you through the theory before you even consider putting a dollar at risk. Our desire is to have you duplicating our successes within weeks of learning the Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions.

Cautious, steady growth is the key to the program. Kurt and I will show you exactly what we believe you must do to become successful.

More importantly, we show you exactly why certain strategies can be so profitable.

The Money-Making Secrets of the World Cup Champions video course will guide you in the proper direction and provide you with everything you'll need to succeed.

The lessons are comprehensive and to the point. We believe there are no abstract, confusing theories here — only realistic, effective techniques.

What Will I Learn?

Everything you need to know to get started. Money-Making

Secrets of the World Cup Champions manual, which is broken into easy-to-understand lessons, is a comprehensive, step-by-step guide to profiting in the futures market — yet it assumes no prior knowledge on your part.

Significantly, you'll be able to practice using these techniques from the very first day you receive the material. Here is what you get:

You get to watch us ILLUSTRATE our techniques in a series of brand-new video lessons — a $300 value!

We recently went to Chicago and recorded a series of in-depth video presentations of many of our secrets and techniques — complete with charts and literally dozens of real-world examples.

In a series of step-by-step lessons, all recorded live on video, Kurt and I walk you through a lot of the “best-kept secrets” we use for making, real-money profits in the markets.

This is almost 4 hours of intense, focused, one-on-one, personal, in-depth instruction all aimed at one thing: Teaching you what REALLY works in the world of trading...what actually has helped us to make money year after year!

➤ First, I will reveal the secret pricing patterns that let me know instantly when a market is breaking out of an established trend. In a nutshell, I day-trade the e-mini S&P 500 index. My system is based on certain pre-determined pricing patterns that let me know instantly when the market is making a “breakout” from an existing trend.

Once I see a pattern, I know what to do. It’s automatic. I just call my broker or enter an order online to make the trade.

I also use what I call a “trend reversal” pattern. That’s when there has been a trending market and then a special secret pattern occurs that is like a giant red flare in the sky. It lets me know instantly that a market may be about to reverse and go in the opposite direction.

In this course, I reveal a number of the techniques and principles I used to win the 2002 World Cup Championship. Think about what this means! Imagine what it would be like if you knew three special signals that let you know which way a market may be about to start heading. Would you be able to make money with that knowledge? It sure works for me!

➤ Second, Kurt will reveal his secret techniques that let you know instantly WHICH markets to trade...and when to trade them. As a seasonal trader, Kurt tracks the average prices for dozens of different markets. He has a recommended trade to make for almost every calendar day. And now, for the first time, Kurt will actually show how his method for seasonal trading works out in real life.

Best of all, Kurt shows you just how easy these seasonal money-making secrets are to use. Most of the time, all you have to do is follow Kurt’s schedule. You enter a trade on a specific date if the actual commodity price is near the average entry price. It’s really that simple.

Kurt teaches you precisely how to understand and maintain his specific research data so you can know which markets to watch and trade on your own.

There are no complicated theories to understand. Kurt’s approach is very mechanical. When a given market is performing within certain parameters, then you make the trade. If it isn't — if the prices are too high or too low — you pass.

➤ Third, we both reveal our secrets for HOW you trade.

Beginners can make a lot of dumb mistakes. I know. I made most of them myself. That's why Kurt and I can save you literally YEARS of painful trial-and-error mistakes — and a lot of money — when you find out from us what works, and what doesn't, in the markets. We'll show you everything we've learned from years of real-money trading about managing your money... using stops and timed exit techniques...and controlling your risk.

In short, you'll learn many of the invaluable lessons we've learned about trading the markets — only in a fraction of the time.

Kurt and I have condensed our techniques into a series of simple, easy-to-understand, fun lessons — almost 4 hours of video presentation.

Plus...

You get the brand-new MONEY-MAKING SECRETS OF THE WORLD CUP CHAMPIONS trading manual
